

II Diving!

In one of the more suggestive places of the Strait of Messina, on the mountains Peloritani's slopes whose the last extension form Capo Peloro in location Torre Faro, rises Ecosfera diving center. From here you can breathe the air of the ancient village of fishermen whose history is bound to the mythological waters of the Strait. The functional structures of diving based practically on the beach in front to the most close the "Strait" in the park Horcynus Orca forming so, once again, an inseparable connection trough culture and nature. The diving team of Ecosfera motivated by a passion for the sea and its underwater world, is ready to satisfies every your needs, in a mood characterized by simplicity and relaxation typical of these places